

The Richard F. Haskayne Scholarship

Eligibility

Eligibility for this scholarship is limited to participants presently in the Company Program – A Student Venture – in school and after school programs. To be considered for a scholarship under current selection procedures, a candidate must:

1. Be a senior student who will be graduating in the 2005/06 academic year.
2. Enrol in a Canadian University, College or Technical Institute commencing September 2006.
3. Have two letters of recommendation (in sealed envelopes and signed across the flaps by the authors of the letters) - one from a Teacher and the other from your Student Venture Program Advisors.
4. Be actively involved in one or more community or school organizations.
5. Deliver their application, accompanied by the required supporting documents, to Junior Achievement of Southern Alberta, 870 - 1202 Centre St. S.E., Calgary, AB, T2G 5A5 on or before JANUARY 31, 2006.

Basis for Determining the Scholarship Winner

All Applicants are required to submit a fully completed application form, including an official high school transcript for at least the last two years. (If a transcript is not available, a mid-year report will suffice.).

The scholarship winner is selected on the basis of participating in the Company Program - A Student Venture, scholastic ability and other available information, which indicates achievement, leadership, and career potential.

A panel of JASA Board Directors will interview short-listed candidates.

The scholarship winner will be announced at the Celebration of Achievement in 2006.

Amount of Scholarship

This scholarship provides for the payment of $2,500 to the winner. Upon presentation of proof of enrolment in the qualifying post-secondary institution, a cheque will be sent to the education institution. The following conditions apply to the scholarship:

- The scholarship can only be applied against recipient's tuition after the deadline for dropping classes has passed;
- If the tuition is less than $2,500, the balance of the scholarship should be applied to the next semester's tuition; and
- If the recipient does not attend the next semester, the balance of the scholarship must be refunded to Junior Achievement of Southern Alberta.

The Richard F. Haskayne Scholarship

The scholarship is a one-time grant; it is not renewable, nor will past winners be eligible to reapply.

Junior Achievement of Southern Alberta reserves the right to modify the scholarship, in whole or in part, at any time.
